The Underground Railroad

Do you know why escaping slaves called Canada the “Promised Land?” Just like the Israelites looking for freedom and a home in Canaan, the land God promised them, African American slaves found their promised land in Canada. While fugitives used many routes north on the Underground Railroad from all over the United States, Harriet Tubman traveled the route pictured below. Did the Underground Railroad ever pass through your town? You can find out by researching at your local library or online with the help of an adult!

Go Down, Moses!

This song tells the story of Israel in bondage and represents African-Americans’ own struggles in slavery. As seen in The Harriet Tubman Story, Harriet used this song to secretly communicate with fugitive slaves as they escaped Maryland! With the help of your teacher, learn and sing the song with the lyrics below!

1. Why Israel was in Egypt’s land
   Let my people go
   Oppressed so hard they could not stand
   Let my people go

   Refrain:
   Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt’s land
   Tell old Pharaoh: Let my people go

2. The Lord told Moses what to do
   Let my people go
   To lead the Hebrew children through
   Let my people go [Refrain]

3. As Israel stood by the waterside
   Let my people go
   At God’s command it did divide
   Let my people go [Refrain]

4. When they had reached the other shore
   Let my people go
   They let the song of triumph soar
   Let my people go [Refrain]

5. Lord, help us all from bondage flee
   Let my people go
   And let us all in Christ be free
   Let my people go [Refrain]
Modern Day Slavery

Though slavery is illegal, that does not mean it is over.

The bad news:
- Over 40 million people are trapped in slavery right now (that’s the combined population of 80 countries.)
- Around 25% of slaves worldwide are children.
- Slavery happens all over the world, including in many U.S. towns.
- Slave owners prey on poor families looking for a better life.¹
- Slavery is the third largest international crime.
- Criminals get rich off of slavery—it is a $150 billion industry.

Is there good news?
Though so many still suffer under slavery today, God is using people all over the world to work for their deliverance. Here are some organizations working, just like Harriet did, to help slaves worldwide gain their freedom:

International Justice Mission (www.ijm.org)
World Hope International (www.worldhope.org/anti-trafficking)
Vision Beyond Borders (www.visionbeyondborders.org/trafficking)

What can I do?
Did you know that YOU can help end slavery? Take a look at the ways you can get involved below.

Raise money  Raising money for victims helps them escape from slavery and get the care they need. It also helps provide resources for those working to end slavery.

What are some creative ways you and your group could raise money?
- Have a bake sale

Bring Awareness   Many people don’t know that slavery is still happening today. Hosting an awareness event and teaching your community to recognize the signs of slavery get everyone involved.

Where could you host an awareness event? Write down some ideas and the names of people who could help you organize it!
- At my church—my Pastor

Pray  We’ve learned through our lessons each week that God hears his people and works in mighty ways when they pray.

Sometimes praying seems hard! How can you and your group pray with purpose? Write your ideas below!
- Go on a prayer walk through your town

After you have come up with some ideas, gather as a group to decide how you can help end modern slavery. For more ideas and resources, check out https://www.ijm.org/resources and download the GiveChange toolkit!

Quilt Codes

Did you know that something as simple as a blanket could be a secret message? Stories from the time of the Underground Railroad tell us that Railroad workers used quilts, or patchwork blankets sewn together in unique patterns, to send coded signals to escaping slaves. Thanks to some creative thinking, many slaves reached freedom! The following pages show some quilt patterns and their meanings.

Make your own quilt codes following the directions below!

Supplies:
- Colored construction paper
- Scissors
- Colored markers, pencils, or crayons
- Glue

Directions:
1. Choose a pattern from the following pages.
2. Color your pattern and cut it out.
3. Glue the pattern onto a piece of construction paper.
North Star:
Could mean prepare to escape or to follow the north star to freedom in Canada.
Monkey Wrench:

Gather tools, like compasses, hammers, or weapons, needed to make the journey.
